Health of the City.

We may venture now, we think, to announce to our friends at a distance that the health of our city has greatly improved, and that no danger need now be anticipated in returning to the city so far as the cholera is concerned, even if that disease were contagious.

There has been a gradual decline in the number of cases of cholera for eight or ten days past, and the disease seems to be disappearing from our midst. There are some patients now lingering in a low state, and there may and probably will be a few more deaths reported. But the disease has evidently spent its force and is passing away. It is too early as yet to philosophize upon the matter, but its appearance here has taught us all a lesson, and shown very clearly the sense and nonsense of several things. Filth and fear are the elements in which it delights, and as these have most abounded among the foreign population of our city the cholera has seemed absolutely hungry for the Irish.

A return to the usual health of the city—the passing away of the excitement—the dismissal of morbic and nervous fear which has haunted so many—the opening again of closed dwellings, and the gathering home of families will put a new face upon our city. Prudence must yet govern the appetites of all in order to exempt from disease. Cleanliness and sobriety become now virtues of more than ordinary value.

We expect in a very few days to be able to announce that the cholera has entirely disappeared from our city and vicinity, as this conclusion now seems to be warranted from the general decline of the disease for the few days past.

REPUBLICAN CHRISTIANITY: or TRUE LIBERTY, as exhibited in the life, precepts and early discipline of the GREAT REDEEMER. By E. L. Magoon, author of 'Proverbs for the People' 'Orators of the American Revolution,' 'Living Orators of America.' Boston: Gould, Kendall and Lincoln. 1849, pp 422.

The author of this work is an earnest thinker and an outspoken man. He dedicates this volume to all who hate Tyranny, revere Humanity, believe in Progress, and follow Christ. It unfolds with more than ordinary clearness and power the evils arising from a union of church and state, and from all those ecclesiastical arrangements which take away the essential equality of the christian citizen. The plea for manhood and the independence of the individual, is worthy of a warm-hearted and right-minded American Orator; and the plea for the christian religion, on account of its capacities and its influences to raise the lowly, cheer the poor and assist the weak—to overcome the narrow policy and selfish aims of the aristocracy of blood and family and station, is a plea which will electrify thousands of hearts. How many of the children of toil, seemingly doomed to the hard necessity of constant servitude and with none but limited and feeble means of acquiring knowledge will find in these pages the emotions of their own hearts described. How many young men who have turned despairingly away from the future, and groaned over the obstacles which selfishness, and fashion, and opinion and custom and cliques have erected, will find themselves becoming Samson-strong in will and resolution, after a study of this volume.

Here are great thoughts which have at length found a fitting utterance in a warmth of language and a glow of imagery which cannot fail to arrest attention, and help work out the mission of equality, of which they so eloquently prophecy.

We cannot let this opportunity pass without urging; somewhat earnestly, upon the young men of our country, every apprentice and farm boy in the land, to read this work carefully and thoughtfully. It will make a capital study for those men who are about to take passage for Californian and will furnish them with a multitude of suggestions for conversation.

It is such a work as we have long desired to see and comes, happily, from the right quarter, in the right time, and under the right influence.—There are men who will hate its doctrines and sneer at its suggestions, because they trust in the old order of things. But there are millions and the number is daily increasing, both in this country and in Europe, who see the dawning of a better day—a day of greater equality among men and they will shout in the glorious noon. In the mean time they will refresh themselves in the contemplation of Republican Christianity of which the work before us gives a fair view.

The work is for sale at E. F Duren's Bookstore in Gothic Block in this city.

The Boldest Robbery Yet.

On Monday afternoon a young man, seventeen or eighteen years of age, well dressed, but whose name is yet unknown, stepped into the store of Clark & Bradbury on Harlow Street and soon commenced amusing himself by tossing up apples from a measure on the counter. After awhile Mr. Bradbury was called to examine a load of wood.—He stepped out on to the square, and returned in about a minute and a half. On his return the young man was still amusing himself with the apples and commenced whistling a tune. In a short time he left the store, and soon after it was discovered that he had stolen six dollars in change from the draw, during the short time the store had been left.

Boy's Clothing.

All who are about to purchase boy's clothing in Boston will do well to call on O. Hudson & Co, No 4 Brattle Street. Mr H is the Pioneer in this line; they keep a large stock, and do an immense business, and "all that is asked for this store is a careful examination of the goods and the prices, compared with goods and prices elsewhere."

☞ See advertisement in this paper.

☞ One of the "Lunksonses" of the Antiquarian Society mentions in the Mercury the taking of an anaconda Bear in Levant by a company of hunters. The carcass weighed 393 lbs., and the company partook of a fine supper from some of the choice cuts

---

☞ Massachusetts papers speak of immense droves of cattle which have been recently driven from Maine to the Brighton market. When Maine capitalists and farmers fairly go their eyes open to this subject they will find that beef packing is a business which should be carried on in Maine instead of driving the cattle to Brighton

☞ The Hartford Courant relates a good story of a voter in the Western part of New York, who was hailed and his qualifications required. "Well," said he, "I ain't nothing? I used to be a Liberty man till the Free Soil party come up; then I joined that party; now that is burst up, and I ain't nothing."

☞ A landlord recently called out to a temperance man at Blackburn, "Why, you are looking yellow with your abstinence." "Yes, said the man, putting his hand into his pocket and pulling out some eagles, "and my pocket is looking yellow too."

☞ The Land Agent has advertised a sale of lots in No. 11 Range 5, West from the East line of the State, at Smith's hotel in that town on the 2nd of October; and in No. 4 Range 5 at the dwelling of John Conant, in said township on the 31st day of October.

A large number of iron warehouses and cottages have lately been prepared in England, expressly for San Francisco. The cottages weigh from two to three tons, and cost about three hundred dollars each.

Mr William L Mayhew, of Chilmark, who left the barque George, of Stonington, and proceeded to the gold mines of California writes home to his wife that he has secured $6000.

The accounts in relation to the cotton crop in Alabama, Louisiana, &c., are unfavorable. Late New Orleans papers state that the crop of Texas is better than was expected, only a few plantations having been injured.

It is stated that Col Hamilton, of Ohio, has been appointed Secretary of State for the territory of Oregon.

John L. Boswell, publisher of the Hartford Courant, has been appointed Pension Agent for Connecticut.

☞ The Cattle Show at Levant village to-day will be worth attending for the farmers intend to make it a grand gala day.

Report of the Floral Committee of the Bangor Horticultural Society, at their First Exhibition.

The committee in behalf of the society tender their warmest thanks to the ladies and misses of the city for their very generous aid. Very many beautiful boquets of cut flowers were presented, and several fine house plants were loaned for the occasion.

An anxiety was felt by the committee least there should have been a failure in this department of the exhibition, but the result showed the folly of the fear. The variety was not so great as we hope and believe we shall see another year.

Flowers can be grown in this city in an abundance and a variety of hue and fragrance not to be surpassed by any city of the Union and we look to the ladies to see it done, shall we be disappointed?

The show of dahlias was limited, but we know that it was more the fault of the season than of the cultivators.

To the Gardiners, White and Brockmuller the committee would award much and deserved praise. To their effort and skill we were indebted for the adornment of the hall. They also exhibited many rare and beautiful specimens of flowers and plants which are noticed below

In our list it may be that some names are omitted if such should be the case, the error arises from the fact that the name of the donor was not affixed to the article exhibited.

Two boquets from Mrs C Goss.
One do do do H Peirce
One do do Madam Heinmenway.
One do do Miss Ada V. Merrill.
Two do do Mrs J H Shaw, very fine
Two do and dahlias from Mrs John S. Sayward, the best exhibited.

One boquet from Mrs J. H. White of Mount Hope, and arranged with much care labor and taste
One boquet from Miss Mary J Carr.
Four do do Mrs Henry Little.
Two do do Brockmuller
One do do Mrs John C Young.
One do and dahlias from Mrs Farnham.
One do and cactus from Miss Stockwell.
Two boquets and flower basket made with skill and taste, from Miss Bancroft.
One boquet from Mrs Schwartz
One do do Mrs C K Jewett.
One vase of flowers from Mrs F Lambert, one of the prettiest things exhibited.
One boquet from Mrs S G Rawson.
One do on a corn-stalk, fanciful, but no name.
One boquet from Miss Ada Patten.
One do do Mrs J T Dole.
One do do Mrs Geo. B Moody.

Liquor Prosecutions—No. 4.

Mr. Editor:—Next to conscience, the appendered and abettors of the rumsellers is to fear. It is dangerous to stir up the evil passions of men, even when they are violating the laws. If they insist on violating the laws, and threaten to execute vengeance on those who seek to enforce the laws; if they proceed to lynch the administrators of the laws when in the regular discharge of their duties, then good men must pause, in presence of the mob, and consider the risk the community runs in further efforts to support the laws. If offenders dare to resist—then the laws must be silent. If a criminal be violent, and desperate, give him impunity, and expend your censures upon those who have had the moral courage to attack his crimes, and to force out his guilt. Talk then about the dangers of the traitor, the folly of the 'fanatics,' the impolicy of 'sumptuary laws'—of 'espionage,' and the odiousness of the right of search'—of the consequences of mingling 'moral and social,' with 'political questions,' as though a proper respect for the laws and their administration could be limited to the moral and social, and did not necessarily involve the political, in all systems of law, and under all fit administrations.

Now sir, I believe you will fully agree with me, that the more violent the resistance to the laws, the greater is the necessity for vigor in their administration. Violators of law are never violent, until the measures adopted for their conviction are such as are likely to reach them with effect. Violence therefore, is evidence that they are reached—that they are sensible of their danger without speedy relief.—Their violence is put on for the very purpose of intimidating their prosecutors; seeing, that their only chance is to shake off the laws that chase them, or the law officers in whose hands those laws have become a fire, rather than a dead letter.

If the friends of law and order—if the friends of the law of 1846 would see this, and act upon it, the work would soon be done. If, like the physician, they would meet the violence of the symptoms with energetic treatment, instead of shrinking before those symptoms, and modifying where they ought to repel—the patient would speedily run through these spasms, and his disease yield to the power of legal prescription.—Away then with your cooling apothems, your ice-water treatment, your paregoric and cordials—administer the steam apparatus—and the convulsive throes of the patient will soon cease, and the demoniac spirit take its leave. The hour of triumph is nearest when the excitement is at its height—provided always, there is energy enough in the power that has produced the excitement to rush forward and carry it through. Here the failure has always been. Enough have been found here to agree, and often, ready to start these prosecutions and to carry them forward until run-power has felt their efforts, and been goaded up to rage and excitement; but no sooner is this point reached than they fall back, intimidated at the spirit they have aroused. They have not courage to face it. They are bold to declare war—but no sooner is the enemy aimed and in the field, than it is found that the Temperance army is unprepared to fight. It will clamor for a law—tens of thousands will swell the petitions for the law, and worry heaven and the legislature with prayers to get it, and the Governor with remonstrances against vetoing it—when the law is obtained, they are impotent for its enforcement, and censure Select men, City Councils, Mayors and police officers, because it remains a dead letter; they will encourage men to get testimony, and urge lawyers to use it in prosecuting violators of that law but when all this is done, and a little stir is got up by it—when prosecutors and witnesses are dragged from town to town by constables, in the face and eyes of justice, and the magistrates and attorneys are assaulted and outraged in the public streets—are these petitioners for the law, these solicitors for the law, these solicitors for its enforcement, ready to back up their agents and to push on to victory? I will not be unjust.—There are some who manifest the right spirit But the great mass of temperance men fall back with a sort of unconcerned conservation. They will talk pretty well—meet you with kind inquiries, congratulate you that it is no worse—and tell of the 'good time coming.' At the same time,—when met by the friends of the other side, and charged with being accessories to the prosecutions that good men, too many Temperance men assume the attitude of the man in the tragedy when confronted by the ghost, with bloody grizly hair. They seem to say—

"Shake not your gory locks at me, thou canst not say I did it."

Now, sir, is this the proper attitude for the friends of law and order? Should not every energy of every true friend of temperance be put forth at this very emergency? If violence is to break down law, where is that violence to end? Shall we encourage it? Shall we yield before it? or will the friends of temperance now rally and convince these miscreants that Law reigns in

PENOBSCOT.

The Poor Man's Doings.

BY MRS. MARY E. HOWITT.

Oh, what were the pride of the rich man's gold,
Or the worth of each untilled road,
Were it not for the rough, yard-handed poor,
Who toil for their daily food.

Whatever of labor the rich man needs,
From the poor man's hand must come—
From the cradle race of the new-born heir,
To the coffin and sculptured tomb.

The poor man swayeth the settler's axe,
Till tall forests far retire;
And the city springs on its phœnix wings
O'er the brands of the log house fire.

He bardeth the earth with iron roads,
And the steam-fed courriers guides;
And fearless drives the steeds of the sea
Wherever the rich man rides.

He tills the plain till the ripened grain
Is safe in the garner stored,
And with rifle and snare he hunteth the fare
That smokes on the rich man's board.

He twineth the costly robes of pride,
And rears the stately dome;
And cleares from the clod the marble god
That stands in the rich man's home.

The goods of beauty, the work of art,
Whatever your wealth hath bought—
Nay, the very gold that your coffers hold
The poor man's hand hath wrought.

Then health to the rude and thrifty poor,
And honor them evermore;
They toil the turmoil, earn the wages of toil,
As your fathers did before.

And think the reward of labor is health,
That wealth is industry's friend,
That change is earth's law, and soon the see-saw
May rest at the poor man's end.

Dr. Shaw on Consumption.

There is, perhaps no disease with which our country is afflicted, which sweeps off annually so many victims, as the fell destroyer of the human race, Consumption. What a vast amount of suffering might be saved the human family, if they would but avail themselves in season of the remedies which Nature has provided for her children, and which science has reduced to such a form as to be within the reach of all. Far be it from us to tamper with those who are suffering with this painful disease. In offering you a remedy, we do not ask you to rely upon the representation of those who might be actuated by selfish and pecuniary motives, but we give you the deliberate testimony of some of the most respectable physicians, that Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is established for itself a reputation that cannot be assailed. Dr. Wm. A. Shaw, of Washington, N. C., writes, under date of May 1, 1846, as follows:—

"I have heard of many cases of decided beneficial effects from its use, especially in Asthma, and Chronic Cough of spasmodic character. I have used the Wild Cherry a great deal in practice, and with marked good results in those cases of great nervous mobility, and irritability, to which phthisical patients are subject. I have no doubt it is the best form in which the effects of Prussic acid may be had as a solvative on the constitution without danger of the patient. Every one knows the reputation of the Turpentine and Balsam so obtained in protracted coughs. The combination of these principles in Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is ingenious and judicious.

"Medical men are justly distrustful of Patent Medicines in general, but can not must discriminate in favor of unexceptionable remedies and nostrums and those medicines which have proved salutary, and in many we'll attested cases, curative."

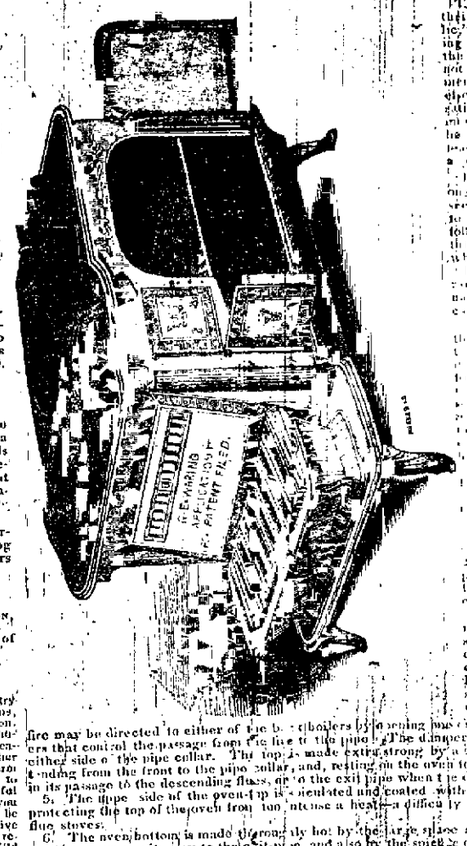
REPUBLIC AIR-TIGHT
COOK STOVE.



THE subscribers having in offering their new Stove called the "Republic," of which the annexed engraving is a correct representation, to the consideration of the public do not deem it necessary to recommend it as superior to every other, or a cure for all the ills of life, satisfied that persons of good taste and correct taste will not be their approbation, but will, at least on trial, find it all they claim as a good cooking stove.

Believing that those who will examine their stock will find better one; they would invite to an unacquainted with it the following reasons why they expect to share freely the favors of those who wish to purchase

1. Its general economy of fuel, cleanliness, comfort, convenience, and many particularly, and heavy

2. The particular construction of the top plate, by which either of the front holes may be entirely removed from three to four inches, affording a communication of heat to the other large heated surface, they may be varied by the two left-hand pieces, affording a heated surface equal to seventy inches in the No. 8 size, giving the advantage of a large oven, with the same fire, and at the same time affording a large heated surface for the reception of cooking utensils, which can be placed on the top plate, by which the front part of the oven is heated, and when desired to change to a horizontal position, makes a convenient place for a broiler, toasting iron or other utensil.

3. The flues or fire passages are much larger than in ordinary stoves, and rounded where set the current is changed, thus ensuring a full and free draft behind, and under the oven, to the smoke-pipe, when the dampers are closed. Or the whole front of the stove can be opened, and put in a fire for baking, when desired.

4. The flues being the entire width, and passing directly around the oven, bake alike. The oven for Baking is not equalled by any Stove in use.

Dr. Townsend's

COMPOUND EXTRACT OF

SARSAPARILLA,

Wonder and Blessing of the Age.

THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE IN THE WORLD.

This Extractis put up in Quart Bottles—it is six times cheaper, pleasanter and more powerful than any Syrups with at nominal quantity, sickening or debilitating the Patient.

The great audacity and superiority of this Sarsaparilla over all other medicines is, while it eradicates diseases more effectually, it is the very best invigorating tonic ever known.

SPRING AND SUMMER MEDICINE.

Every body knows that impurity of the whole system and even knows that impurity pervades the whole system and strengthens the person, but it creates new, pure and rich blood, a power possessed by no other medicine! And in this lies the grand secret of its wonderful success—that as the weak are very de ough health, we will give the testimonials of some of your Sarsaparilla, and are very glad we did, for it not only restored her strength but she has had no return of the Fits, to our great pleasure and admiration. She is in fact regarded as cured, for which we feel grateful. Yours, respectfully,

JOHN BUTLER, Jr.

FEMALE MEDICINE.

Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla is a sovereign and speedy cure for Incipient Consumption, Barrenness, Prolapsus Uteri or Falling of the Womb, Chlorosis, or Whites, obstruction or difficult Menstruation, Incontinence of Urine or involuntary discharges, the best plan for the general prostration of the system—no matter whether the result of inherent causes or causes, produced by irregularity, illness, or accident. Nothing can be more surprising than its immediate effects on this most important female. Persons all weaknesses and infirmities, from taking it, at once become robust and full of energy under its influence. It immediately counteracts the unwholesomeness of the female frame, which is the cause of so many diseases. It will not be expected of us, in cases of so delicate a nature, to exhibit certificates of cures performed, but we can assure the afflicted, that hundreds of cases have been reported to us. Those who are wives and families we have no doubt will, after using a few bottles of this invaluable medicine, have been blessed with fine, healthy offspring.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES.

This extract of Sarsaparilla has been expressly prepared in reference to female complaints. No female who has occasion to suppose she is approaching that critical period, "The change of life," should neglect to take it, as it is a certain preventative for any of the numerous and horrible diseases to which females are subject at this time of life. This should be adopted for several years by using this medicine. No pill or physic should be taken for those who are approaching women hood, as it is calculated to assist nature by quickening the blood and invigorating the system. Indeed this medicine is invaluable for all the delicate diseases to which women are subject.

It braces the whole system, renews permanently the natural energies—by removing the impurities of the body, not so fast as to endanger life, but in a manner to produce a pleasant sensation—which is the case of most medicines taken for female weakness and disease. By using a few bottles of this medicine, many severe and painful surgical operations may be prevented.

GREAT BLESSING TO MOTHERS AND CHILDREN.

It is the safest and most efficient medicine for purifying the system, and relieving the sufferings attendant upon child birth ever discovered. It strengthens both the mother and child, prevents pain and disease, increases and enriches the food—those who have used it think it is indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents diseases attendant upon childbirth—in Cost veness, Cramps, Swelling of the Feet, Despondency, Heartburn, Vomiting, Pain in the Back and Loins, Piles, Piles, Hemorrhage, and in regulating the secretions and assisting the circulation it has no equal. The great beauty of this medicine is, it is always safe, and the most delicate female may use it successfully, very few cases requiring any other medicine—a dose or a little Castor Oil or Magnesia is useful. Exercise in the open air, and light food with this medicine, will always ensure a safe and easy confinement.

BEAUTY AND HEALTH.

Cosmetics, Chalks, and many preparations generally in use, are the greatest foes to every human spoil of its beauty. They close the pores of the skin, and check the circulation, which, when nature is not thwarted by the use of powder, or the skin inflamed by the alkalies used in soaps, must flow its own passage to the surface, and give a healthy tint to the garden of rich and delicately tinted and variegated flowers. A free, active and healthy circulation of the fluids or the cleansing of the pure, rich blood to the extremities, is that which paints the countenance in the most exquisite beauty. It is this which imparts the indescribable shades and dashes of loveliness that all admire, but none can describe. This beauty is the offspring of nature—not of powder or soap. If there is not a free and healthy circulation, there is no beauty. If the lady is fair as a lily, or vivid as the paint and use cosmetics, and the blood is too k, cold, and impure, she is not beautiful. If she be pale or yellow, and there is pure and active blood, it gives a rich bloom to the cheeks, and a brightness to their eyes, that is fascinating.

This is the reason why the southern, and especially the Spanish ladies, are so much admired. Ladies in the north who take but little exercise or are confined in doors, or who have passed their completion of the appearance of internal derangement, their countenance to assume a shadow of purple, lemon or sparkling eyes, and beautiful complexions, they should use Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla. Those in whom have tried it are more than satisfied, are delighted. Ladies of every station crowd our office for it.

NOTICE TO THE LADIES

Those that obtain Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla have also purchased their stuff a great remedy for females, &c., &c., and have copied our 8 the said circulars which relate to the complaints of women, word for word—other men who put up medicine have, since the great success of Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla in complaints peculiar to females, recommended theirs, although spurious and worthless, as their circulars are. A number of these Matrons, Ladies, &c., are apparent to females, as they are to the sex, and undermine the constitution.

SCROFULA CURED.

This Certificate vouches to the public that three bottles of Sarsaparilla has perfect cured me of the most obstinate case of the blood. Three persons ruined in our house were cured.

MARY CHILDREN.

Dr. Townsend: Dear Sir—I have much pleasure in informing you that three of my children have been cured of scrofula by the use of your excellent medicine. They were afflicted very severely with humors, have been given over by several eminent physicians, and considered incurable. I now consider them entirely well, and recommend your Sarsaparilla to all afflicted with scrofula. Yours respectfully,

H. P. PULING, M.D.
R. E. BRIGGS, M.D.
P. H. ELLENDORF, M.D.

Albany, April 11, 1849. 1y

CAUTION.

Owing to the great success and immense sale of Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, a number of men who were formerly our Agents, have commenced making Sarsaparilla Extracts, Pills, Bitters, Extracts of Yellow Dock, &c. They generally put it up in the same shaped bottles, and some of them have stole and copied our advertisements,—they are worthless imitations, and should be avoided.

McKENNEY'S COSSACK SALVE!!

An Invaluable Remedy

FOR Fever Sores, Rheumatism, Swelling of the Feet and Limbs, Swelling of the Tonsils or Sore Throat, Chronic Eruptions of the Skin, and all Scrofulous Diseases, Rig d Cords occasioned by Colds or Strains, Stiff Neck Chilblains or Chapped hands, Sore or Inflamed Breast, Weakness or Pains in the Stomach, Piles, Corns, Warts, and Coons on Soles and Cuts and Bruises of all kinds.

In bringing this article before the Public, we are aware that we labor under no small disadvantage amidst the multitude of "A Healing Ointments" and "Pan aceas" that are now advertised as the "most effectual" and "certain cures" for all diseases in Instrumentable, to which taut or animals are subject.

A history of this Salve, and the wonderful cures it has effected in the above complaints, will be found in a pamphlet accompanying each Box—a reference to which is invited before purchasing.

We would only add, that we have undertaken the task of manufacturing the above named Salve at no inconsiderable trouble and expense; not so much as a matter of speculation and pecuniary benefit as in compliance with the earnest and repeated solicitations of persons afflicted, and those who have experienced its wonderful medicinal and healing properties.

To say, indeed, that we do not expect to realize a thousand remuneration for our services, would be like useless and untrue. But we flatter ourselves that it, through the, we are richly paid, and the article sound very soon, has an extensive sale—the Public are receiving a full and ample equivalent.

As we have already stated, we do not and shall not carry out the empty "puffing of the Day," or the "bought certificates" of their kinds; and shall make use of them only so far as they have been, or hereafter may be, entirely voluntary and unsolicited.

The Salve is now before the Public! They, and they alone, will decide upon its real virtues and medicinal properties. To say less, were unjust to ourselves—to say more would be needless.

Here are some of the many Certificates:—

The subscriber was afflicted with a Fever Sore upon his leg for about six years, and in the winter of 1845 it commenced swelling from the ankle to the knee. After using many remedies without effect, I applied some Salve obtaining of Mr. A. M. Sanford, of New York, and continued its application until I had used six bottles, which entirely cured me, and I have had no return of the disease since. I would also say that I know the above Salve to be a cure for Corns, one of my family having used it for this purpose with complete success.

DANIEL SEAVEY.

Dexter, (Maine) May, 18 6.

This certifies that one of my sons having been afflicted with a Fever Sore for more than a year, and having tried various means to effect a cure, without success, which cost me about forty dollars, I bought 1 box of JOSIAH McKENNEY'S SALVE, which effected an entire cure in less than two months.

SIMEON MARSTON.

Gray, May 11, 1846.

BANGOR, June 5, 1846:

Mr. McKenney—In going into the woods in the autumn of 1845, with the charge of quite a number of men, for the winter lumbering operation, I was induced to take a few bott es of your Salve, it having been recommended to me as one of the best remedies for accidental Cuts and bruises; and I found indeed, to my great satisfaction, that it was an invaluable article. I made application of it in the cases of Cuts, Sprains, and Bruises upon my cattle, and found it equally beneficial. It can truly be called the All Healing Salve.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office

WASHINGTON.

NO 22 STATE STREET, BOSTON.

IN 1840 the subscriber was appointed by the Commissioner of Patents, Agent for the U. S. Patent Office, in accordance with the 10th Sec. of Act of 37.

Having relinquished the Agency for the transmission of Models, and adopted a more expeditious mode of sending them to the Patent Office, whereby a Patent may be procured about six weeks earlier, he continues to forward them free of expense—to prepare Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all the necessary Papers and Drawings for Patents; and to render advice on legal and scientific matters respecting the same. Patents secured in Europe and other countries.

By application at this office, inventors are saved the time and expense of a journey to Washington and delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining the documents. They also have the advantage of verbal explaining their inventions, and of consulting in respect to them; matters, in general, of paramount importance in order to obtain correct specifications and claims. The experience of sixteen years' practice, an extensive collection of rare works, descriptions, &c on mechanical subjects, the Patent Laws, and patents of different countries, collected at much expense during the long time this office has been established, together with accounts here kept of inventions patented at Washington, enable the subscriber to afford to inventors, desirous of procuring Patents, assistance and information which in other respects might be difficult to obtain.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

WASHINGTON, JULY 21, 1849.—During the time I occupied the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. DR. PEARSON'S

CARMINATIVE BALSAM.

Great Choera Preventive.

THIS article should be in the possession of every person travelling. It has never been known to fail of producing the happiest results in cases of Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, &c., and has during the prevalence of the CHOLERA in this country, been performing wonderful Cures,—though it is recommended more particularly as a PREVENTIVE, but is useful in any stage of the complaint. If taken immediately upon the supervention of the Diarrhœa—will prove a preventative of the Cholera—or attack of this fearful and dreadful disease may be prevented. In Cholera Morbus and Summer Complaints of children, it has no equal. Dr. P. has made use of it in his practice for near 10 years, with the most remarkable success. Price only 25 cents per bottle.

It is decidedly the most beneficial remedy for the cure of Dysentery, Cholera Morbus and Summer Complaint, that is known to man. Parents will find it the best medicine that can be used for young children and infants. And every person who is travelling in the summer months should not be without a bottle of it in their possession; as it is an infallible remedy against the change produced in the system by drinking bad water.

We annex the following certificate of Mrs. A. M. Sanford, of New York, in reference to the Carminative Balsam. We might add a long list, but consider this sufficient.

This is to certify that I have used Dr. Pearson's Carminative Balsam, and consider it, I believe it to be the best medicine that can be used for the various diseases for which it is recommended to all ladies who are travelling in the summer months, and mothers for the fretting and crying of infants for which it is a certain cure.

DR. STEPHEN JEWETT'S

Justly and Highly Celebrated

Family Medicines,

Used by Physicians of high Standing.

Prepared by STEPHEN JEWETT, son of the late DR. STEPHEN JEWETT of Rindge, N. H.

It is no pretended that ALL ONE of these medicines will RELIEVE OR CURE EVERY DISEASE ALL REASONABLE PERSONS KNOW NO SUCH ARTICLE CAN ACCOMPLISH SUCH RESULTS. But it is THE EACH of these medicines, by thorough trial, will be pronounced to have NO SUPERIOR OR EQUAL FOR RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of the diseases for which they are recommended, as they have been tried, and proved by their continued use for the last fifty years by NUMEROUS FAMILIES and PHYSICIANS to be TRULY FAMILY MEDICINES, and pronounced to be ALL the MEDICINES EVERY PERSON or FAMILY can require, unless in very extraordinary cases. Their power over diseases has not been excelled—if equal'ed—as numerous certificates, which skillful physicians have failed to produce relief.

ALL CAN BE CURED, WHO WILL USE THEM AS DIRECTED, IF WITHIN THE POWER OF MEDICINE.
